4. Disclosures by Directors

Every director of the Company shall, at the beginning of a financial year, provide information by way of written notice to the Company regarding his concern or interest in the entity with specific reference to parties which may be considered as Related Party with respect to the Company and shall also provide the list of Relatives which are regarded as Related Party as per this Policy.

5. Identification of Related Party and Related Party Transactions

Each director, key managerial personnel (KMP) and senior managerial personnel (SMP) is responsible for providing notice to the Company or Audit Committee of any potential Related Party Transaction involving him or her or his or her Relative, including any additional information about the transaction that the Board / Audit Committee may reasonably request. Audit Committee will determine whether a transaction does constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this Policy.

Any change in the list of Relatives shall be intimated by the Directors and KMPs/SMPs by way of a fresh declaration to the Company.

6. Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions

6.1. Audit Committee

6.1.1. All the transactions which are identified as Related Party Transactions and subsequent Material Modifications should be pre-approved by the Audit Committee before entering into such transaction provided that only those members of the audit committee, who are independent directors, shall approve such Related Party Transactions. The Audit Committee shall consider all the relevant factors while deliberating and granting approval in relation to the Related Party Transactions which inter alia include the following:

- (i) Name of party and details explaining nature of relationship;
- (ii) Duration of the contract and particulars of the contract and arrangement;
- (iii) Nature of transaction and material terms thereof including the value, if any;
- (iv) Manner of determining the pricing to ascertain whether the same is on arm's length;
- (v) Business rationale for entering into such transaction; and
- (vi) Any other information relevant or important for the Board to take a decision on the proposed transaction..

6.1.2. Any member of the Audit Committee who has a potential interest in any Related Party Transaction will recuse himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of such Related Party transaction. A Related Party Transaction which is (i) not in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) not at arm's length price, would require approval of the Board and/or shareholders, as the case may be.

6.1.3. In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee will consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the Related Party Transaction:

- (i) Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on arm's length basis to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- (ii) Whether there are any compelling business reasons / rationale for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- (iii) Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of an independent director;
- (iv) iv. Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed transaction;

- (v) v. Whether the Company was notified about the Related Party Transaction before its commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification is allowed and would be detrimental to the Company; and
- (vi) vi. Whether the Related Party Transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any Director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the Director, Executive Officer or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the Director's, Key Managerial Personnel's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board / Committee deems relevant.

6.1.4. The Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions which are repetitive in nature and subject to such criteria/conditions as mentioned under Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations and such other conditions as it may consider necessary in line with this Policy. The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself regarding the need for granting omnibus approval and that such approval is in the best interest of the Company. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of one year. However, in case of Related Party Transactions which cannot be foreseen and in which the conditions set out in Regulation 23(3) of the Listing Regulations are not available, the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval provided the value does not exceed INR 1,00,00,000 per transaction. Such omnibus approval shall specify (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into, (ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit;

6.1.5. The Audit Committee shall review, on a quarterly basis, the details of Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to the omnibus approval. In connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

6.1.6. A Related Party Transaction entered into by the Company, which is not under the omnibus approval or otherwise pre-approved by the Audit Committee, will be placed before the Audit Committee for ratification.

6.2. Board of Directors

6.2.1. A Related Party Transaction which is not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length transaction, whether or not it is a Material Related Party Transaction, prior approval of the Board in a duly convened Board meeting shall be necessary.

6.2.2. Where any director is interested in any contract or arrangement with a Related Party, such director shall not be present at the meeting during discussions on the subject matter of the resolution relating to such contract or arrangement.

6.2.3. The Policy shall be reviewed by the Board at least once every three years.

6.2.4. While considering any Related Party Transaction for approval, the Board will take into consideration the factors such as, nature of the transaction, material terms, the manner of determining the pricing and the business rationale for entering into such transaction.

6.3. Shareholders

6.3.1. All Material Related Party Transaction and subsequent Material Modifications shall require prior approval of shareholders in the manner prescribed under the SEBI Listing Regulations. No shareholder of the Company who is a Related Party to any particular Related Party Transaction, shall not vote on the resolution granting approval to such Related Party Transaction.

6.3.2. If a Related Party Transaction is not in the ordinary course of business, or not at arm's length price and exceeds certain thresholds as prescribed under Section 188 of the Act, it shall require prior approval of shareholders. The Related Parties shall abstain from voting as shareholders in case of Related Party Transactions which require the approval of shareholders. However, the shareholders' approval is not required for the transactions entered into between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries whose accounts are consolidated with the Company, and transactions entered into between two-wholly owned subsidiaries of the listed holding company, whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

6.3.3. In the event the Company becomes aware of a Related Party Transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved under this Policy prior to its consummation, the Company would obtain post facto approval from the Audit Committee, the Board and/or shareholders as required under applicable laws/ regulations. In case the Company is not able to take such prior approval from the Audit Committee, the Board and/or shareholders, such a transaction shall not be deemed to violate this Policy, or be invalid or unenforceable, so long as post facto approval is obtained as promptly as reasonably practical after it is entered into or after it becomes reasonably apparent that the transaction is covered by this policy. The Audit Committee shall consider all relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction. In any case, where the Audit Committee determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without approval; the Audit Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions, including but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the transaction.

7. Process for Dealing with Related Party Transactions

- (i) A list of all the related parties in relation to the Company received from the Board shall be updated from time to time.
- (ii) Basis the aforesaid list of related parties, every department shall, prior to entering any contract or arrangement with a related party, ascertain whether the proposed contract or arrangement satisfies the approval mechanism prescribed under this Policy.

- (iii) The contract / arrangement shall not be entered in to without the necessary approval from the Audit Committee / Board / shareholders, as the case may be. Compliance to this condition will strictly be adhered to by the concerned department proposing the underlying contract or arrangement.

8. Reporting of Related Party Transactions

- (i) Every contract or arrangement, which is required to be approved by the Board or the shareholders under this Policy, shall be referred to in the Board's report to the shareholders along with the justification for entering into such contract or arrangement.
- (ii) The details of material transactions with related parties will be included in the corporate governance reports which are required to be submitted to the stock exchanges on a quarterly basis.
- (iii) The details of all transactions with related parties shall be submitted to the stock exchanges and / or any other regulatory authority(ies), in the format and in the manner specified in the SEBI Listing Regulation and/ or the Act with and the same shall be published on the Company's website and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report of the Company.

9. Limitation and Amendment

Any change in the Policy shall be approved by the Board of the Company. The Board shall have the right to withdraw and / or amend any part of this Policy or the entire Policy, at any time, as it deems fit, or from time to time, and the decision of the Board in this respect shall be final and binding. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and of the Act or SEBI Listing Regulations or any other statutory enactments, rules, the provisions of such Act or SEBI Listing Regulations or statutory enactments, rules shall prevail over this Policy. Any subsequent amendment / modification in the Listing Regulations, Act and/or applicable laws in this regard shall automatically apply to this Policy.

10. Disclosure of the Policy

This Policy shall be posted on the website of the Company.
